Rev. Dr. Richey is Dead.

Rev. Thomas Richey, D. D., Emeritus professor of ecclesiastical history at the General Theological Seminary, New York, and father of Rev. F. H. Richey, rector of St. Marks Church, Palatka, died in New York last Saturday, aged 74.

Dr. Richey was born in Newry, Ireland, Nov. 1st, 1831. He attended Queen's college, Belfast, and came to the United States when 19 years of age. He was graduated from St. John's college, Haverstown, Md., and from the General Theological Seminary in the class of '54. He was ordained deacon the same year. Some years after Union College gave him the degree of doctor of divinity. He was first rector of St. Marks Church, Palatka, and from 1882 to 1883 of Mount Calvary at Baltimore; then for two years Warden of St. Stephen's college at Annandale, N. Y. He was professor of ecclesiastical history at the Seabury Divinity school, Fairbank, Minn., from 1889 to 1878, when he became a member of the faculty of the General Theological Seminary and was made professor of ecclesiastical history. In 1902 he was asked to resign on account of age, but there was such a howl made over this action that the clergy and alumni that Dr. Richey refused to give up. The matter was finally amicably arranged and Dr. Richey retired as emeritus professor.

He was a man of great popularity among the students. They liked him for his puny and his faculty of making dull church history interesting. He was an author, having published "Truth and Counter Truth" in 1869; "The Nicene Creed and the Filioque" in 1884, and Vol. I in the "Parables of Jesus" in 1886.

Old Soldiers' Opportunity.

The pretty town of Interlachen, 15 miles west of Palatka, is making an attractive offer to veteran soldiers of the civil war.

For two years from July 1st, next, Mr. H. G. Hastings of that place, in consideration of $1 to pay for deed, will donate a lot 50 x 100 feet, or larger, within five minutes walk of railway station, telegraph office, post-office, stores, churches, schoolhouse, lakes, etc., to every old soldier, soldier's widow, or other respectable person who will build thereon a good dwelling house of four or more rooms. Large amount of land at distance will be given on the same terms to those who wish to engage more generally in fruit and vegetable culture.

Interlachen is a most beautiful place, high and dry between beautiful lakes. It is a town of about twenty 200 and 300 people, the large part of whom are from the north. It is a town of pretty homes and pretty churches, has a good school; fine orange groves. It is one of the healthiest places in Florida.

The business men of the town have recently organized an association for the purpose of building up the place and the proposition above outlined by Mr. Hastings is only one of the inducements offered by settlers. Mr. F. Coburn, secretary of the association, wishes cheerfully answer all questions of prospective settlers.

Former Palatkan, Dead.

All old citizens of Palatka will remember T. Brigham Bishop, who died in Philadelphia last week at the age of 71.

Bishop came here in 1883 and among other things promoted the Palatkan National Bank, which built and occupied the quarters on Front street now used as the office of the Palatkan News. Bishop lived here about two years and was a "high roller." The bank went out of business, but did not fail.

Before coming to Palatka Bishop had traveled the whole gamut of human endeavor, from negro minstrelsy to "frenzied finance." He was a prolific song writer, having more than 300 published songs to his credit, among the most popular of which were "Shoo Fly, Don't Bother Me," "Pretty as a Picture" and "Join Brother's Body." He had been a bucket shop king, and a prisoner in Ludlow street jail. He started a woman's bank in Boston. His wife was an actress and a well-known spirit medium. Bishop made books on races, built hotels and promoted all sorts of "get-rich-quick" schemes. For the last four years he had led a quiet life in Philadelphia.

How it Works For Palatka.

The Buckman school law is already at work, but not in the interests of Palatka.

All arrangements were made by Sup't. Lowrey early in the week for a big summer training school to be held in this city, the same to be the only one in the state preparing teachers for state and primary certificates. Prof. I. I. Himes was to have been the principal and there were to have been five assistant instructors. Late yesterday afternoon Prof. Himes received a telegram from State Superintendent Holloway which stated "that under the provisions of the Buckman law, Attorney General Ellis has decided that the summer school may be conducted only at the University of Florida, yet to be located. All previous arrangements are cancelled."

The Buckman bill has queer things educational and few connected with the schools are able to know "where they are at."

WHOOPIING COUGH IN JAMAICA.

Mr. J. Riley Bennett, a chemist of Brown's Town, Jamaica, West India Islands, writes: "I cannot stop highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has proved itself to be the best remedy for whooping cough, which is prevalent on this end of the globe. It has never failed to relieve in any case where I have recommended it, and grateful mothers, after using it, are daily thanking me for advising them." This remedy is for sale by Ackerman and Stewart.

The ladies of the library association gave a very successful ice cream social at the library yesterday afternoon and evening.
